Orange County does it again !! We had the largest club turnout at the Idyllwild Campout. See Gail Gammell's article for all the details.

Our chapter has been asked to send one couple to help count ballots for the National Election. My thanks to Rags and Sally Lindman who have volunteered to do the job.

We are pushing the 50-member mark. Keep up the good work in bringing in new members. Speaking of new members, our warmest welcome to Don and Sandy Antonacci and Dave King and Fred and Joanne Deal.

We are fortunate to have a man in our chapter who is a charter member of the National organization. Joey Balthazor has been a Model Aer since 1957; he has had a coupe and a sedan, then got the Model T bug. He's now back among us with a very clean '29 roadster pickup. With Jooy's background in mind, we have called upon him to head the car-costume judging at the Roundup. He's well qualified, and we're sure he'll do a fine job.

Could you use $10 to help buy some goodies for your A? Then be sure and attend the next meeting with your Orange County or National badge. Your name may be drawn to receive a gift certificate from Vintage Auto Parts. You must be a regular or family member, wearing your badge, and be present at the meeting.

Let's get all of our A's out to the Club Breakfast on September 19th. I would like to see AT LEAST 35 A's from our chapter. If you have two A's, bring them both. I'm sure more volunteers are needed to help with the breakfast. If you'd like to give us a hand, please see Sally Lindman.

The Board Meeting this month will be on September 30 at Gayle Hasenplaugh's home, 200 N. Ladera Vista in Fullerton.

SO SAYS SALLY.....
 A Monthly Activities Report
 by Sally Lindman

The Pancake Breakfast is coming fast upon us, and as you all know, this is a very democratic club. In line with our policy of letting each member choose the type of help he gives the club, we've ignored the members entirely and made up our own list of helpers ! If your name isn't listed here, don't worry. Go ahead and choose the committee you'd like to serve on -- we've got to let SOMEBODY choose ! As for you people on the list, if you're going to be a free-thinker and not work on the committee we've put you on, please try to find someone else who will take your place.

PANCAKE PUSHERS: Bill Vaughn, Andy Baudino, Larry Boef, Gene Robinson.
 EGG-HANDLERS: Gayle Hasenplaugh and Pat Peddicord.
 SAUSAGE-SNITCHERS: Chuck Gammell, Dan Doller, Stew Sale.
 COFFEE MAKERS & SERVERS: Dorothy Hasenplaugh, Peggy Twyman, Vina Howell, Harriett Green.
 TABLE DECORATION & SUPPLY: Gail Gammell and Jeremy Janss
 MONEY CHANGER: Ragnar Lindman.

We would also like every family to bring one pound of butter or margarine either to the regular meeting or to the swim party.

NEW HOME

Andy and Rosemary Baudino have recently moved into a new home. No longer Santa Ana residents, their new address is 1411 E. San Juan, in Tustin. New phone, 544-0788.

"DO you suppose that's really a rod knocking?" asked Tom internally.

FASHIONS FOR SALE
 by Pat Boef

If anyone is interested in clothes to match their A's (and aren't we all !) there is a place in Indiana that will send a list with prices on garments, also including years, sizes and conditions.

For instance, and I quote, "Dress -- early 1930's -- 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ ", hips 35". Brown and tan silk in snake skin pattern, mottled, long sleeves with cream lace cuffs. V vestee with wide lapel, each side tacked to fall in drape. 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ " cream lace collar. Waist-line slightly below normal and belted loosely. 6" scalloped yoke on skirt with side seams cut to make flare of 94" at hem. Lace needs several thread repairs. Washed. \$6.50.

There are men's and children's clothing, too, and they will send a box on approval with credit references.

REMEMBER THE MAINE !!!!
 (And Don't Forget The Swim Party Either)

We wish to make the September 11th swim party one at which the adults can relax for a few hours from watching their little ones, especially because of the swimming pool, so we are making this bash for adults only, please.

Water fights and ducking will commence at 4:00 pm, followed by liquid refreshments and dinner around 8. Please bring your own meat for barbecue, and eating utensils. Also, those people with last names beginning with A thru M should bring a salad, and N thru Z should bring bread. Paper plates, cups and liquid refreshment (beer and cokes) and charcoal will be provided by the club.

The map showing the tricky and devious path to the Boef Castle is on the first page of this paper. Y'ALL COME, NOW...815 Sonora Road, Costa Mesa.

IDLE HOURS AT IDYLLWILD, or
How to Get Absolutely Drenched in One of the Driest Portions of the Country
by Gail Gammell

As the early rays of sunlight peeped thru the fog on Friday morning, the Greens, Lindmans and Gammells were off to Idyllwild, stopping at Corona for breakfast, and quickly followed by the Boefs and Baudinos, who nearly didn't make it. Not because of their "A" mind you, but because of Larry's late model truck. (They don't make 'em like they used to, huh, Larry?)

Since we were the first club at the campsite, we had pick of the place, and tho we managed to park under the trees all right, were also right next to the horse trail -- dust from morn till night.

Around 6 pm the Dierberger and Twyman caravan arrived, loaded down with all sorts of camping stuff. Even with Jack's Double A filled to the brim, it made it past Corona this trip. Just as everybody was getting settled for the night, in drove the Robinsons with their custom camper, followed by the Eathertons, who brought up Big Joe's and Little Joe's Fords. Roland Ferris and family had arrived shortly before them because he came minus "A". It does make the going faster. Orange County's last arrivals Friday night were the John Shattuck family, and former members George and Irane Rounds. Saturday morning we greeted the Vaughns, who completed the Orange County contingent.

The running events were held early in the afternoon. Gene Robinson upheld the honor of Orange County by taking 2nd prize in the contest. When the running events were completed, there was no more planned activity, so we planned our own. This came in the form of a gigantic water fight with hoses and buckets full of water, supplemented with squirt guns. During the several hours this was going on, everything and everybody got absolutely sopping wet. It was great fun for all involved. I think. Altho Sally had to leave early, she was well-organized as usual, and left definite instructions with Jack and Jill (or was that Jack and Larry?) about all those pails of water.

Lots of excitement all around the area -- on the way up, poor Mel Howell nearly got run over by a boat, then a bit farther up the road, their pickup was nearly attacked by a vicious table (it had fallen off a truck). We were afraid they just weren't destined to reach Idyllwild. They aren't mentioned in the above camping list, because they chickened out and stayed in town. Also, while the Boefs, Dierbergers, Baudinos and Vaughns were eating breakfast in Idyllwild Sunday morning, they sat next to Fred MacMurray and June Haver.
