CONKOL'S QUOTES

by Larry Conkol, President

November means the time has come to get your Club Christmas party tickets - the Nov. meeting is your last chance as the party is Dec. 12th, the day after our Dec. meeting. Joe & Betty Eatherton have invited the club to their home (map next month) for a cocktail party at 6:30 to get the evening started. A few minutes away, at the South Coast Plaza Hotel, the newest and one of the largest hotels in the county, Beth Salo has planned our Christmas party which is like saying

Henry Ford built a car. After a roast beef dinner our election results will be announced. Then door prizes and dancing to a great band. All this in a beautifully appointed banquet room with crystal chandeliers, parqued dance floor and of course a bar. That's Friday Dec. 12th, but you must get your tickets at the Nov. meeting. Cost is $20 per couple.

The Childrens Christmas party will be at the Dec. 11th meeting where Kim Krist has a party planned for the kids - individual presents are planned so Kim has to know who will be there. (a form is in this months & last months Distributor) Please bring the kids and let Kim know now. There is no charge.

The Round-Up went very well thanks to the efforts of Tom Hettel and all the members who helped. (which was about every member there) Sometimes it almost seems that we screen potential members on their willingness to participate and help out wherever they can - we do not. I guess we just attract people who have found a little effort is nothing compared to what is received from club functions. Thank you all.

Although most of the years major Model A tours are behind us there are two local tours this month (see Gary's article). Remember if your A isn't roadworthy bring a newer car.

Included with this months Distributor will be your election ballots Please vote and bring the ballots to the Nov. meeting or mail them to the address on the ballot instructions. Ballots must be returned by Dec. 1st as stated in our by-laws.

After the business portion of our Nov. meeting we will see some slides of this years club activities taken by Glenn Johnson. Slides

of the entries in the Round-Up last month will also be shown along with some out of state A's thanks to recent members Bob & Mary Weltyle.

See you at 7:30 November 13th at Trident Jr. High, 1800 W. Ball Rd., Anaheim.

BARNEY'S BRIEFS
by Gary Barnes, Actv. Chairman

The Huntington Library is one of the most famous places in the world. The library has such biggies as the Gutenberg Bible and many very original manuscripts by such people as Chaucer, Franklin and Walden. The art gallery contains both Gainsboroughs "Blue Boy" and Lawrence's "Pinkie". Take these and add their Botanical gardens and you have the sum total of a great tour.---FREE of course Kids welcome and with any kind of luck we'll have a guided tour. Rain or shine.

It's about time we took our wives out to dinner, isn't that right wives? How about a really good Italian dinner? Umm Umm Sounds good hum? Tom Hottel agrees and has one all set up. In tour of course. You'll get mileage and a free beer too. See Tom's article.

The AACA Swap meet brings out some swappers that you don't normally see, so this should be a good meet. Xmas presents galore!!

If you have any old playing cards that you would like to donate to the club they would be appreciated. We will use them on future poker runs. See you at the meeting!

Don't miss the pre-party at the Eatherton's on Dec. 12th. These are really fun and the Eathertons are great hosts.

Tom Hottel thanked every one for helping at the Round-Up. A discussion was held and decided to make a recommendation to next years board that we omit the big raffle.

It will also be recommended that only people who are not being judged be allowed to tally. All though Ruth Craigs tags which were given out with the trophies were a good idea. The tags were to be placed under the windshield wipers and told what trophy they won. Thanks also to Betty & Joe Eatherton for inviting all to their home after the Round-Up.

Next board meeting at Grunklee's Friday Nov. 28th. Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted
