Notes From Your President Mark Schwing. . .

May 2007
President's Letter

Wow, wow and even more wow!
What a wonderful collection of collector cars were seen by those who made the trip to see General Lyon's private collection in Coto de Caza. I apologize if you wanted to go but couldn't due to the limit on the number of cars allowed. The on site parking at the Lyon home is somewhat limited. As it was we had 26 Model A's, several other antiques and two moderns on the tour.

The collection included a 1929 Model A Town Car (less than 15 known to still exist), a Shelby GT500 Mustang, various Fords from the mid-thirties, and a very fine collection of Dusenbergs, Mercedes Benz, Auburns, Cords, Packards, Cadillacs and some classic Chryslers. Also on display was the grandfather of all SUV's, a WWII era armored Mercedes Benz staff car with four rear wheels and rumored to have been used by Adolf Hitler himself. There are even more cars in another facility that we didn't see.

The cars were displayed in the finest setting that I personally have seen in an automotive museum. The building was very light and airy with marble floors. The walls were covered with automobile memorabilia and historic artifacts from General Lyon's career in the Air Force, William Lyon Homes and Air California.

We were told that every car in the collection is driven monthly and the displayed vehicles are changed periodically. The General was very gracious in opening his grounds and museum to us. Perhaps Terry Hardgrave can schedule another tour sometime in the future to accommodate those who couldn't make the tour or those who want to see it again.

On Monday, April 16th, the day after my big Toledo, Ohio consumer show, my wife and I had our annual opportunity to spend sometime at the Henry Ford Museum or Greenfield Village. If you are ever in Detroit, Michigan make some time to see the Henry Ford Museum, Greenfield Village and Henry Ford's residence. You will need several days to see it all. One of the Henry Ford's quotes I noted during this trip was this: "If you think you can or you think you can't, you will always be right." Gives you something to think about, doesn't it?

I apologize to all our Distributor readers for a club member making and distributing copies of the club owned commercially produced and copyrighted VHS tapes. All of the copies will be retrieved and destroyed. Only the originals will be available through Gary Discher for member check out with a $10 refundable deposit for each tape. The board will consider purchasing DVD versions of these videos as an addition to our "how to" library.

Got Feeler Gauge?

Yes, you do. Some day during your driving adventures you will want to recalibrate or check your ignition point gap (.018 to .020), rotor gap (.025), or spark plug gap (.035 to .040). By utilizing your spark plug wires, and distributor cap hold down clips you can do it. Spark plug wires range .0175 to .0205 of an inch, and hold down clip .035 to .040 of an inch in thickness. By using these items individually or in combination you can achieve a good measurement for your specific application. If you are capable of eye balling these measurements without the aid of a gauge you are an exception. I hope this information will be useful in the future.

Keep on touring.

Joan Mariola is once more home again and sporting a new knee replacement. She reports she is feeling well and walking a bit. Now she can run races around "Godfather"! Way to go there, Model A Lady!! Hope to see you real soon.

We offer sincere condolences to Ronnie Eliot and family. Jim Eliot passed away on April 5th, after suffering a heart attack. Jim was a member of our club as well as the Model T club. He had been very instrumental in working on the joint swap meet put on by the Model T club, along with our "A" club in July of last year. This year Ronnie is carrying on the tradition, in Jim's memory, of being actively involved in this swap meet, which will be held on June 30, 2007. (Please see flyer in this issue of "The Distributor" on Page 10)

Spotted at the General Lyon car tour was our own Warren Hogan. It is great to see him out and about! He seems to be doing well. He looks mighty good riding in Frank Mowrer's Model A. It was not very long ago, that he had gotten out of the hospital, again. I think he just goes back once in a while to check on those nurses! Hoping we will see more of him in the future.

SOoooooooooooo.... Happy to report that Sharon Johnson arrived at their new home in Camino, after a heart attack on April 3rd. She says it's a great place to recuperate, watching all the "critters" in the woods. There are numerous deer, wild turkeys and some different birds, which we do not have here. Glenn is busy putting the house in order as she directs the procedure. We are all thankful as her doctor says she is making progress in her recovery; we wish them much luck in their new home. They are missed.

Thinking of Terry Collings, Joanie Harris, and Dale & Kathie McCall.

OCMAFC Military Veterans

Richard Higgins U.S. Army 1952-1954

I was born on March 20, 1931, and grew up on a farm in Greene County, Iowa. On February 11, 1952, the country was at War with North Korea and my friends and neighbors selected me and ten other young men from Greene County to represent them in the draft. We all thought we would go to Korea, but instead we were all sent to a number of other places. I received my basic training at Fort Leonardwood, Missouri. After basic I was sent to heavy equipment operator's school. It was a very good school and I learned a lot. Road grading was best of all.

Upon completion of the school I was sent to Karlsruhe, Germany. The area was still pretty much bombed out from the World War II. We did a lot of work for free for the German people, like building new roads, and a two-mile long railroad. We also leveled a number of farm fields. A friend and I were sent with our road grader to level a soccer ball field. The local Germans wanted to have some soccer games, the first since the war. They were so happy with our work they asked our battalion commander to let my friend and I attend the games. When we went they gave us some souvenirs, which I still have today. I have been in recent contact with the new Burgermeister (Mayor) of Karlsruhe and he would like to put them on display in their new Soccer clubroom.

On my return home from the army on January 21, 1954, I worked at several construction jobs before starting my own business, which I operated for 16 years. I then spent over two years in Saudi Arabia, as a supervisor of road construction. I helped build many of the roads the Desert Storm Troops used in 1991. Later I worked as assistant supervisor of a construction company, and finally at a school district my last ten years. I think that was my most enjoyable job, and it provided me with good benefits.

Historian's Corner

Dick Smith – Club Historian / Librarian

The OCMAF Club has a number of commercial VHS tapes in its library. These include:

How to Stop on a Dime
Timing the Ignition
Carburetors & Carbohydrates
Dial D for Distributors
Gennin Along with Lloyd & Floyd

Roadside Trouble Shooting
How to avoid Fahrenheit Fright
40 Horses
Transmission Rebuilding
The Flasher

These tapes were produced over nineteen years ago by Victor Duncan's company Double D. Mr. Duncan is the owner of the copyright of the tapes. All of these videos are currently available in either VHS or DVD versions from Bratton's Antique Auto Parts or Snyder's Antique Auto Parts. Most are priced at $39.95 per copy with one or two somewhat lower priced.

Since only a copyright owner may grant permission to make copies of copyrighted material during the 70 year life of a copyright, Mr. Duncan was contacted and declined to give that permission since the videos are still a readily available commercial product.

Under U.S. copyright laws, an individual could make a copy for personal use to replace a worn original; however, the individual may not distribute copies. Hence, a club can not make copies for its members or other clubs since that would impact sales of original copies.

Our Club will retrieve any and all copies made from Club owned original tapes and destroy them. As our VHS versions become unusable, the Club will consider purchasing new DVD versions to maintain our library in first class condition.

MORE PHOTOS FROM THE GENERAL LYON TOUR

COTO TOUR TO LYON CAR COLLECTION

By Terry Hardgrave

(Photos by Donald Dodge & Dennis Ashburn)

On Saturday, April 21, our club was treated to a special experience: seeing first hand the wonderful car collection of General William Lyon at his estate in Coto de Caza. The rainy weather of the day before cleared up, and all 26 Model A's that made the trip did so without incident.

The tour started at Mimi's Café in Irvine, with a 9:00 am departure. Due to the large number of cars, we decided to split into 3 mini groups, which made staying together much easier.

Upon arrival, we were all able to park our cars on the winding drive at the rear of the house, which made quite a lineup. Directly ahead, on the way to the museum, were several vintage Ford's that Gen. Lyon had made a special effort to have transported and displayed just for our members. Once inside the museum, everyone could take their time and wander through the two large rooms housing the collection, which includes probably the finest Dusenbergs collection in the United States..... 10 magnificent cars beautifully displayed, all with custom coachwork. There were also several pre-war Mercedes-Benz, Auburns, Cords, and a very special collection of pre-war 8 and 12 cylinder Packards, along with a V-16 Cadillac and scores of other classic cars representing the Golden Age of automobile manufacturing. Of special interest to club members was the Model A Town Car on display.....one of only about 13 known to exist. The walls of the museum were lined with memorabilia of automobiles and also Gen. Lyon's military career in the United States Air Force. For those of you not aware, William Lyon was a Major General in the Air Force, and was Chief of the Air Force Reserve in Washington, D.C. during President Ford's administration. He served in both WWII and the Korean War, and still enjoys flying his airplanes. He has been in homebuilding for over 50 years, and William Lyon Homes has been very visible and successful all over California.

The tour ended at 11:30, with everyone applauding Gen. Lyon and his wife Willa Dean for generously opening their collection to us. It was quite a sight with all of the Model A's heading down the winding lane, and on our way to lunch at The Rose Canyon Cantina in scenic Trabuco Canyon. After lunch, many of us went back via Live Oak Canyon Road, which passed through a wonderful canopy of old live oak trees that completely covered our cars..... what a great Model A road, and a nice way to end our day and find our way back home!

A "THANK YOU" NOTE FROM SHARON JOHNSON

(Written on April 13, 2007)

First, I want to tell everyone that I really, really didn't do this to get out of packing. I want to thank everyone for their phone calls, prayers, cards, flowers and gifts. Glenn and I will be heading for Camino on Saturday, April 14th. I'm feeling much better and will see a cardiologist the week of April 16th. I have been staying with our daughter Heather and she's taken great care of me. Heidi and Holly have been in touch to monitor all my eating and walking. Glenn has been trying to put our house together in Camino so I won't be upset when I get there. Once again, thank you to everyone. Sharon Johnson
